

Most Minnesota counties saw turnout surges, especially the Twin Cities suburbs

Eligible voter turnout in this year's election spiked in most counties across the state, with metro area suburban areas seeing some of the largest changes from 2016.

CHANGE IN ELIGIBLE VOTER TURNOUT FROM 2016 TO 2020

