

Minnesota's voter turnout was the highest since JFK

Turnout among eligible voters in Minnesota during presidential elections reached its highest point since 1960 when John F. Kennedy won the state and the presidency.

— Voter turnout

